

It Would Be a Good Thing If the United Nations Really “Protests ” about the Name of Chinese Antelopes

Author: HU Dan

Abstract:

In 25 years' of time, Ge Yuxiu has gradually grown from a recorder of ecological and environmental changes to a steadfast environmental volunteer. Over the age of 60, he is still on the road to "rectify the name" for the Chinese Antelopes. Although the process has not been smooth, he is still campaigning for it. Giving the Chinese Antelopes a right time with the support from all sectors of the community has become his lifelong dream.

Key words: GE Yuxiu, Chinese Antelopes, name rectification, endangered animals
