FUTURE TEAM MEXICO

About us

Future Team is the global youth network, which connects young leaders and professionals from 180 countries. We are proud of our Team, which consists of bright individuals aspiring to provide solutions for the UN Sustainable Development Goals, to promote peace, cooperation, mutual respect, and intercultural understanding. We serve as an aggregator of international opportunities, a platform for your multinational activities, projects, ideas to the benefit of goal-oriented people and organizations passionately involved in international youth cooperation around the world. We strive to increase your impact and bring your activities to the global level.

Since the principles of decentralization, equality, multipolarity lie at the core of the Future Team as a network movement, it is our participants and partner organizations who act as the main driving force of the Future Team and guide its further development. Publish your proposals on the online platform, send your projects to our email – we are ready to discuss any initiatives and keep growing together.

IDEA AND IMPLEMENTATION

INTERNATIONAL MOVEMENT FUTURE TEAM

Future
Team

Future Team is a movement of active young leaders from all over the world, aimed at discussing together and finding solutions to the global and local problems.

The outreach of Future Team groups in social networks - more than 150 000 people from more than 190 countries of the world.

INTERNATIONAL YOUTH MOVEMENT

FUTURE TEAM

Our mission

We strive for construction of an authoritative international platform aimed at strengthening the interaction of professional youth from different countries, exchange of ideas, and positive practices in various fields, expanding of the pool of partners abroad, professional and personal growth of our participants.

We claim that there is a gap between available international opportunities and goal-oriented young people for whom these opportunities are actually designed, which is a significant obstacle to youth empowerment. Future Team Online Platform is meant to serve as this kind of link accumulating the international opportunities and its own formats and platforms for youth empowerment. It is an aggregator of international projects, events, volunteering campaigns, and it keeps developing. We expect the creation of new Platform sections such as career and education opportunities, exchange programs, Future Team Academy which will provide online educational resources etc.

How the Future Team works?

In cooperation with partner organizations and on the basis of the information provided on the online platform, we identify the most professional and goal-oriented participants who are interested in international cooperation (we prioritize those who have specific proposals, projects, and initiatives).

We upgrade resources to promote personal and professional growth of the participants:

- International exchange programs and internships
- Advancement on international platforms
- Education opportunities in higher education institutions
- Project expertise
- Future Team Academy resources (soon will be available on the web platform)
- Language practice
- Theory and practice of intercultural communication
- New ideas and motivation
- Professional growth through volunteerism etc.

Our KPIs are the international opportunities that participants implement with the assistance of the Future Team:

- Arrangements to establish an international project & cooperation agreements
- New career opportunities made possible due to your success in the international field
- Development / intensification of the international track of your organization's activities
- Establishing a pool of new reliable partners abroad
- Efficient search of the experts and participants for your scientific, educational, and business events
- Receiving a grant to implement your own projects
- Getting education and successful employment, etc.

◆ Our World after COVID_19: International Cooperation, Globalization, the Crisis of Values?

- ▶ What do I think, how do I see the crisis happening?
- ▶ What am I doing as an individual, human being, citizen of the world, expert in my area?
- ▶ What do I believe / hope will happen to our society? What do I invite and exhort listeners to?

Future Team México

México City, April 23-25, 2020

Questions      Answers (on a scale of 1-5)

Finally speaking, how are you, what are you going through, how are you living all this coronavirus/covid19? personal experience

- Where you are right now?

- How many days have you been there?

Issues about isolation, personal measures, feelings, etc. (if it is the case how long ago you entered quarantine?)

Essentially how it has affected you and what decisions you have taken regarding the coronavirus. (in a personal level, family, friends)

- Do you contribute work remotely?

- Have you had a close case of Covid-19?

As the national level your government measures

What kind of information do you receive and what media do you usually read about this?

- How many cases of coronavirus are there in your country?

- How is it affecting and how do you think it will affect the economy in your community?

- You consider that there will be people who will not have to eat because they live off their day-to-day sales?

- How long do you think we will continue in this contingency?

Invite to give a message to all who will be listening to this broadcast

BE PART OF THE CHANGE

Why should I join Future Team?

Future team aims at providing participants with an equal access to various international opportunities and partner organizations with a platform to effectively build international communication and strengthen their global presence.

Future Team brings together organizations of various types and scales who are interested in developing international youth cooperation: from global associations to grassroots NGOs.

If you share our aspirations and values, you can consider yourself as a Future Team Ambassador. Our members are forward-looking young change-makers who passionately seek to contribute.

Who can become a Future Team Ambassador?

You can! If you share our aspirations for peace, security, understanding, cooperation, and youth empowerment. Future Team provides opportunities for young people of different fields of work and interests: young policymakers, activists, businessmen, ecologists, scientists, students, volunteers, engineers, journalists, sportsmen and artists. And this list is not exhaustive.

Future Team partner organizations

Future Team partner organizations are NGOs, foundations, governmental bodies, national Future Team associations, student groups participating in international youth cooperation. They are the main driving force of Future Team rather than just "partners" as commonly understood on web sites.

Future Team opens up opportunities for its partners to highlight their activities in the world, attract new participants, trainees, researchers, and volunteers to their projects. It allows organizations to strengthen their global presence, share resources and expertise in order to increase the effectiveness of their activities.

Future Team is open to cooperation with all organizations who share its goals and aspirations.

We propose

- our possible areas of cooperation include but are not limited to mutual support by co-organizing events (from selection of participants to jointly developed event program)
- promotion of the most active members and employees in the international arena
- information campaigns
- exchange of partners network to carry out joint projects and conclude cooperation agreements
- and much more

You may benefit from the Future Team Online Platform by making a profile of your organization with detailed description of its activities and preferred formats of cooperation with other organizations, by publishing your upcoming events and keeping the audience informed about the outcomes of the previous ones, by searching for new partners and experts. You may also join one of the ongoing social project or volunteer actions or share your own initiative.

Over time, new functions will be available on the online platform such as publishing online courses, joining the expertise of projects of the Future Team members and many more.

If you are an individual not affiliated with any organization but with a strong desire and capacity for organizing educational and volunteering activities for young people in your community, you can contact us to discuss possible establishment of a Future Team group in your country.
