题目①

Dear schoolmates,

I'm giving this speech to call on you to donate the things you don't need. The purpose of this activity is to donate the things we no longer use to those in need. By doing so, we can make sure that these things will be reused, as well as pass on our kindness and the spirit of environmental protection.

Now, let me tell you what we need to prepare for this activity to make it a success. First, we should collect the things that we want to donate, such as textbooks, stationery and school uniforms, just to name a few. Next, we should make sure that these things are clean and usable. At last, a list of items should be made in advance, which will help with registration and sorting.

Looking forward to your support.

I want to say “Thank you for helping make me who I am”. I am very thankful that my classmates have stood by me for the past three years.

I used to be very shy and found it hard to fit in when I entered middle school. Luckily, my classmates noticed it and took the initiative to invite me to join in different activities. After that, I became friends with many classmates, which allowed me to enjoy my time in middle school. Whenever I encountered difficulties in study or life, my classmates were always there to help and encouraged me. With the help, I am now more confident and have made great progress! How thankful I am!
