SHANG

The name “学子尚 Xuezishang” is derived from the profound meaning in Zuo's Commentary on the Spring and Autumn Annals, which states, "Revere virtue and benevolence, and value learning with accomplishment." It highlights the company's passion for learning, respect for education, and admiration for the virtues of the wise.

SPE PROFILE

Yunnan Sage Path Education Consulting Co., Ltd. (SPE) was founded in 2021 and is headquartered in Kunming, Yunnan Province, China. After several years of development, as of July 2025, the company has successfully established six subsidiaries across Yunnan, Guizhou, Jiangsu and Sichuan.

SPE was founded by a team of returnees with extensive overseas study experience. Among them, the core members have been deeply engaged in the study abroad industry for nearly a decade, with most holding overseas academic backgrounds. The company's main services include study abroad consulting, short-term study tour planning, and visa processing, providing comprehensive overseas services that cover the entire country and certain international regions.

Since its establishment SPE has remained committed to refining and enhancing its study abroad services, breaking away from the traditional agency model. It has built a one-stop, concierge-style service system that provides tailored study abroad plans for each client. Supported by a professional management team, SPE ensures that clients enjoy an efficient and expert study abroad experience.

Experienced Study Abroad Planning

Exclusive Study Abroad Consultants offer one-on-one consultations, customizing study abroad plans based on individual conditions and career development goals. We assist applicants in choosing schools and confirming majors, as well as interpreting study abroad policies, among other services.

Convenient Application

Applicants only need to provide basic materials. We will handle the notarization of application documents, process paperwork, and submit applications for free. Additionally, we offer exclusive interview coaching to help applicants secure offers.

Guaranteed Trip

We provide a full range of services including pre-departure orientation, apartment and hotel bookings, visa assistance, group departure with a dedicated guide, airport pickup, and post-arrival lifestyle guidance.

Full-Process Accompaniment

During your study abroad, our life mentors and academic advisors will accompany you throughout your journey, assisting with academic tasks, solving any issues encountered in daily life, liaising with the school, and providing proactive feedback.

Academic Progress Planning

We will create a comprehensive plan for your entire academic journey, closely monitoring your progress and guiding you on the tasks to complete at each stage. Our support will ensure you stay on track and graduate successfully.

Exclusive Social Events

Bangkok Cruise Social Event organized by Shang Education offers an entire cruise, inviting students to meet along the Chao Phraya River for interaction, networking, and making friends with students from various universities. Every year, we also host exclusive New Year's Eve dinners and other special events for Shang Education students.

Academic Support

During the thesis stage, we invite experts and scholars from relevant fields to conduct exclusive thesis guidance seminars for students. Throughout the thesis writing process, we provide academic consulting services and offer channels for journal publication.

Degree Verification

After graduation, we will liaise with the school to prepare the necessary certification materials and assist with the degree verification process through the Chinese Service Center for Scholarly Exchange (CSCSE) as well as consular certification in the host country, helping you complete the final step of your study abroad journey!

SPE STUDY ABROAD

A Safe, Green, and Convenient Application Process

To facilitate the study abroad application process and reduce costs for clients, we have established a company website, an official WeChat account, and multiple social media platforms to provide easy access to information. Additionally, we have invested in building a comprehensive client management system, an electronic contract signing system, and a student records management system. This enables all clients to consult online, register online, sign contracts electronically, submit application materials, track application progress, and download offers and personal records—all through our digital platform.
